TROUBLE NOT OVER.

The Indian Uprising May Yet Take Place.

TROOPS ALREADY MARCHING.

Short Bull and Kicking Bear, With a Large Following, Marching Southward, and Say They Will Not Surrender. Gen. Miles Starts for the West.

OMAHA, Dec. 15.—A special from Rapid City, S. Dak., says a battery of Hotchkiss guns was sent from Fort Meade to that point, to reinforce Gen. Carr's command at the mouth of Rapid Creek. A number of straggling parties of Indians have been going south. They are under command of Short Bull and Kicking Bear, and say they will not surrender. Short Bull is one of the worst Indians on the reservation. It was he who murdered Agent Appleton in cold blood at Pine Ridge. It is expected the main body of hostiles will attempt to follow him.

Gen. Carr has orders to intercept and disarm these Indians at all hazards and it is expected a collision will occur to-morrow in the vicinity of the mouth of Spring Creek or Rapid Creek. Dr. McGillivuddy, surgeon general of the South Dakota militia has been ordered to join Col. Day's command at the front. Several old Indian fighters have volunteered as guides and scouts. A company of Sioux and Crow from the north are on the way to join Gen. Carr. A special from Pine Ridge says part of the Seventh cavalry has orders to march at midnight.

White Men Killed by Indians.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., Dec. 15.—Information has been received here that two white men, Jack Bridges and Burk Robinson, were killed by Apaches in the Guadalupe mountains Friday. Bridges discovered some freshly killed meat and went to Hall's ranch to notify the men there. Then in company with Robinson and another man, they went to the place where the meat was found to investigate the matter. They had just arrived at the spot when they were fired upon by the Indians. They returned the fire and attempted to escape, but were surrounded and two of them soon fell. The other men escaped after being grazed by a bullet, which made a slight scalp wound and reported the result.

A courier was then sent to this city for help. Sheriff Slaughter immediately telegraphed to Fort Huachuca for government assistance and made immediate preparations for departure. The fight took place in the Guadalupe mountains, east of the San Bernardino ranch, near the Mexican line. Five Indians were seen, but it was impossible to know how many were present and the fact that the party was surrounded shows that there were more than five there.

Gen. Miles Starts West.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Gen. Nelson A. Miles, accompanied by Capt. Marion P. Maus and the general's private secretary, left here for St. Paul at 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Just before leaving the general said he should remain at St. Paul a couple of days and go thence to the north-western Indian country.

Gen. Miles said he did not place any credence in the report that there has been a battle between the troops and Indians in the northwest. He had a telegram from Gen. Brooke yesterday to the effect that a rumor that the Indians were fighting among themselves had reached the agency. No further report had been received from him, and there was no reason to believe that there had been a conflict with the soldiers.

A dispatch received from Omaha, Neb., says that no battle has occurred between the United States troops and Indians near Pine Ridge Agency, as reported.

Indians Fighting Among Themselves.

DENVER, Dec. 15.—A special from Rapid City, S. Dak., says a soldier from Capt. Wells' camp reports that the Indians in the Bad Lands have begun fighting among themselves. This news was brought by scouts. The battle took place in Grass Basin. Two Strikes and his followers, and Short Bull and his followers engaged in a very lively scrimmage. Each leader is bound that his supremacy of the whole band should be acknowledged.

Peace Pipe Shot to Pieces.

PINE RIDGE, S. Dak., Dec. 15.—The Indians sent out by Gen. Brooke to bring the hostiles in were roughly treated and their peace pipe shot into pieces. The Seventh and Ninth cavalry are preparing to start for the Bad Lands at daylight to bring the hostiles in. The Sixth and Eighth cavalry from the Black Hills are advancing on the west.

Boycotting Chicago Dressed Meat.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 15.—The mass meeting called by the county Farmers' Alliance association was largely attended by farmers Saturday afternoon. Several hundred merchants and professional men took part in the general discussion of the most practical means of driving Nelson, Morris & Company's dressed meat out of this market. The final decision was to boycott it. The farmers held that since the Chicago dressed meat had come into this city the local beef market had been destroyed; that Nelson, Morris & Company were selling at a loss to accomplish their purposes and then, when they were secure in it, they would raise the price.

NELSONVILLE, O., Dec. 15.—A switch engine on the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo railway ran into some cattle at Steenrod's crossing. The engine was overturned, killing Charles Eckles, engineer, and seriously injuring Robert Hickman, fireman. Eckles was a young married man.

ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

Report of the Investigation of Hog Cholera and Texas Fever Among Cattle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In the report of Dr. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry, submitted to congress, particular attention is directed to investigations by the bureau in regard to hog cholera and the origin of Texas fever among cattle, and means by which this disease is communicated from the southern to the northern cattle.

The report details the experiments in Dubuque, which includes the transfer of ticks from diseased to healthy cattle, hatching the ticks and placing them upon non-infected animals, in both cases communicating the fever. Northern cattle have been herded with Texas cattle, from which the ticks have been carefully removed without being attacked by the disease. The disease has also been communicated through ticks hatched in the ground which had been frequented by infected animals. The hatching period is from thirty to sixty days.

Dr. Salmon, in his report, states that cattle taken to the south for breeding purposes can be protected from the fever by keeping them free from ticks; again, that southern cattle may be rendered innocuous by washing them with some preparation that will destroy the ticks, or by keeping them upon infected ground until the ticks which are on them mature and drop to the ground, but not long enough for the young ticks to hatch out and reinfest them.

While it has thus been shown unmistakably that the disease is communicated through the ticks, it has not been shown with absolute certainty that there is no other means by which the protozoan gains access to the blood of susceptible cattle, but it is quite evident from the investigations just made that in the great majority of cases cattle are infected by means of ticks.

FEDERATION OF TRADES.

A Number of Resolutions Acted Upon and Final Adjournment Taken.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 15.—The last session of the Federation of Trades began Saturday morning. The convention decided to influence the appointment of women factory inspectors and the organization of women. The trades and labor council of California was suspended until a subordinate union paid up its assessments.

A resolution aimed at the sweating system in New York, asking that a congressional committee be asked for to investigate, was passed. Another, asking for the repeal of the conspiracy law in New York, was also passed. Regarding the struggles going on in New York between the Knights of Labor and the trades unions, the expression of the convention was against antagonizing the knights, but referred all complaints to the executive committee.

The afternoon session of the convention was conducted with closed doors. The report of the committee on boycotts and labels was received. The boycott against Freishman & Company, meat manufacturers, was affirmed. That against certain Pittsburgh theatres was disapproved of. The boycott on the St. Louis breweries was also continued. After a short open meeting in which the new officers made brief speeches, the convention adjourned sine die.

Cause of the Wreck.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 15.—A Baton Rouge special says Capt. Bixby, of the lost City of Baton Rouge, in an interview says that when he attempted to land at Hetmitage, he was under the impression that the snag on which his boat was wrecked had been removed. The shock produced by coming in contact with the snag was hardly noticeable, and the landing was fortunately made before the boat began to sink. She went down in five minutes. All on board with the baggage and valuables walked ashore over the gang plank, and not a single life was lost.

Keeping It From the Public.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—The authorities of the Johns Hopkins hospital continue their policy of keeping from the public news of the fourteen men and women who have been given hypodermic injections of Dr. Koch's lymph. Out of the fourteen patients experimented upon, two or three had been previously in the hospital for various ailments. The other four had volunteered to undergo the ordeal in the hope thereby to rid themselves of the germs of a disease which they knew would eventually cause death.

Margaret Mather Wants a Divorce.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 15.—Emil Haberkorn, the husband of Margaret Mather, the actress, was seen yesterday afternoon at a law firm where there was in the dispatch from New York that his wife had determined to enter suit for divorce. Mr. Haberkorn said: "I have nothing to say in relation to the dispatch in question further than to deny that I sent the telegram on which, the dispatch alludes, my wife will base her grounds for divorce."

Jack Dempsey in Training.

GALVESTON, Tex., Dec. 15.—Jack Dempsey, the middleweight champion was in this city yesterday, and is arranging to train here for his fight with Fitzsimmons at New Orleans, Jan. 14. Dempsey says he hears that Fitzsimmons is a wonder, but expects to hold his own. Many thousands of dollars have already been wagered upon the result of the mill.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 15.—Michael McCormick in attempting to board a moving train here last night fell between the cars and had both legs taken off. He will probably die. He is a son of ex-Chief of Police McCormick, of Dunmore, and aged 22 years.

Died After 104 Years.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 15.—Mary Brown died in this city yesterday aged 104 years.

WORK FOR CONGRESS

Probable Program of the Week's Proceedings.

THE FEDERAL ELECTION BILL.

It Will Be Discussed in the Senate, But May Not Be Voted on on Account of Pressing Financial Measures — The House Will Settle the Apportionment Question—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The course of the senate during the coming week will be mapped out at the caucus of Republican senators to be held to-night. At present the order of business agreed upon is for the senate to meet at 10 o'clock each morning, to begin the consideration of the Federal election bill at 11 o'clock, and to remain in discussion of this measure until the hour of adjournment, which will be probably 5 or 6 o'clock.

This will be the program to-day, but the caucus to be held to-night will perhaps alter this program entirely. There are two propositions before the caucus. One is to change the rules of the senate in order to establish a method of closing debate so as to bring the elections bill to a vote. The other is to lay aside the elections bill for the purpose of taking up financial measures. A committee appointed by the caucus is considering financial measures with a view to reporting on the advisability of laying aside the elections bill temporarily during this week.

It is not likely that this committee will be able to agree upon anything by the time the caucus meets, although it is possible that a proposition will be laid before the caucus, coming from the president, to pass immediately a bill to purchase the 18,000,000 ounces surplus silver now on the market. This measure or some other financial measure is likely to displace the elections bill during the week. If the elections bill is laid aside temporarily, the general belief is that it will not come up again. There seems little hope of its passage at this time.

The apportionment question will probably be settled so far as the house is concerned, during the week. Mr. Dummell, the chairman of the census committee, has been assured by the committee on rules that he will be given time for the consideration of the Frank bill, and unless something unforeseen should happen, he will call it up before Saturday. There is but little disposition among the Democratic members to make a fight against the measure and it will probably go through without much opposition except from members of the New York city delegation who will contend that New York is entitled to an additional representative, basing their claim on the returns of the police census of New York city.

The composite subsidy bill adopted by the committee on merchant marine and fisheries is also on the program for the week, and an effort will be made by its supporters to have two days set apart for its consideration. The committee on rules, however, may grant one day only. Monday will be individual suspension day. The rest of the week will be consumed in discussing the army appropriation bill, the bill for the retirement of national bank circulation, aimed to relieve the financial situation, and probably the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

Testing Professor Koch's Remedy.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Dr. Koch's lymph cure is now being tried on five patients in various stages of pulmonary tuberculosis at Garfield hospital in this city. The first inoculation was made several days ago, and the results are watched with great interest by the hospital physicians and the doctors of the city. So far in none of the cases has the patient grown worse under treatment. In one of the earliest cases the rise in temperature and other symptoms observed by Dr. Koch in his experiments have been noted; but in another case the reaction has not occurred. The doctors, however, are far from being discouraged, and the inoculation will be continued. It may be a month yet, they say, before they will be ready to announce their conclusions, as they intend to give the lymph a most thorough trial.

Saturday's Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—In the senate Saturday Mr. Reagan's resolution inquiring about the purchase of safes for the postoffice department was agreed to; also, a resolution calling on the secretary of agriculture for a statement of progress in irrigation investigation. Mr. Jones addressed the senate in opposition to the Federal election bill. Mr. Evans advocated its passage.

In the house the bill providing that one person may act as engineer and pilot on steam launches of ten tons and under was passed. The senate cattle inspection bill was discussed and referred to the agricultural committee. The bill for the adjudication of private land claims in certain states was passed with an amendment striking out the name of Arizona.

Quarrelled at a Shooting Match.

KEYESVILLE, Mo., Dec. 15.—Saturday while a shooting match was in progress on the farm of Mrs. Grotjan, near here, Joseph Brown and Joseph and Baptist Herman quarreled. Joseph Herman knocked Brown down with a club, and when he arose Baptist Herman hit him with his fist. Brown died last night. The Hermans have been arrested.

Colored Barber Stabbed to Death.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—James Johnson, a colored barber, was stabbed to death last night by John Robert Washington in a saloon at the corner of Mulberry street and Larew alley. The two men were throwing dice and the murder was the result of a fuss over the game.

TALKED WITH JESUS.

Mrs. Woodworth's Victim Tells Her Experience and Goes Into a Trance.

MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 15.—Saturday night Miss Ruth Hughes, who laid in a trance for fifty hours at the Woodworth meeting, went to church to relate her sacred vision to 2,000 anxious persons, but before she had finished swooned away in another trance and at midnight was still unconscious. In a low voice she said she went to heaven and walked with Jesus, who told her the end of the world was near at hand, and she should tell all people. She was not permitted to enter heaven, but saw a number of people she knew, among them her brother.

She also saw hell and the fiery furnaces, with lots of people there that she knew. While describing the looks of Jesus she fell hypnotized.

All of Saturday the girl's mother tried to induce her to eat something, but to no avail, she replying that the Lord kept her from want. It has been nearly eighty hours since she took nourishment, other than a sup of water.

During services Saturday night a whisky flask was thrown through a window, badly injuring a lady in the audience.

Four other persons have been in trances for several hours, and excitement runs high at the nature the meeting is attaining. To get the audience from the church at midnight the lights were turned out, and husbands hunted their wives with lighted matches.

GIRLS BURNED TO DEATH

Sad Ending of a Joyful Gathering at Buchtel College, Akron, Ohio.

AKRON, O., Dec. 15.—A terrible accident occurred in this city Saturday night during the celebration of a birthday by nine young lady students of Buchtel college. The girls were dressed as Santa Claus, their dresses and heads being covered by cotton batting. One girl danced too near a gas jet and the cotton took fire. In an instant she was enveloped in flames and the clothing of the other girls was soon on fire. Three of them were, perhaps, fatally burned.

They are May Steves, of Clifton Springs, N. Y.; Lulu Steigmeyer, of Attica, O., and May Baker, of Fort Plains, N. Y. The two first named will surely die, while the recovery of the last is doubtful. Addie Buchtel, of Columbia, Kan.; Diana Haynes, of Abilene, Kan.; Aurelia Wirick, of Storm Lake, Pa., and Myrtle Barker, of Peru, O., were seriously burned. Miss Dora Merrill, and Miss Estella Munson, teachers, received bad burns, while trying to extinguish the flames on the dresses of the students.

LATER.—Miss Steves and Miss Steigmeyer have since died. The parents of Miss Steigmeyer have arrived from Attica.

Called to the Door and Shot.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—A special to The Republic from San Antonio, Tex., says: At noon yesterday Louis Evers, a butcher, aged 25, called Robert Richter, also a butcher, to the door and as he appeared blazed away at him with a pistol. Richter turned to run into the house and a second shot sent a bullet into his neck just at the base of the brain. Richter fell dead in his doorway. Evers started down the street and entered the first saloon, where he placed the muzzle of the revolver to his forehead and pulled the trigger, but the weapon failed to go off. Evers was arrested and locked up.

An Alliance Scheme.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 15.—It is rumored that the Farmers' Alliance is negotiating for the great East Street reaper works here, with a view to manufacturing reapers and mowers and thus enter into competition with the Harvester trust, recently formed. The idea is to form a stock company, the stock of which shall be subscribed by members of the Alliance, and supply machinery to members at cost. The East Street reaper works is the largest agricultural implement factory in the world. It is now idle and in the hands of a receiver. It is the most available factory in the country for the purpose.

Charged With Embezzling $17,345.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Henry Blum, a clerk employed by Thomas H. Perkins & Company, stock brokers, was arrested Friday morning, charged with the embezzlement of $17,345 from his employers. The money, it is alleged, has been taken at various times since May, 1888.

A Mine Caves In.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 15.—A cave-in which affected about twenty acres occurred Saturday in the Hollenbeck mine, operated by the Delaware and Hudson Coal company. It is not known at this time how serious the working of the mine will be affected by the cave-in. The miners are removing their tools.

Potatoes for the Poor.

MARION, O., Dec. 15.—In response to a published request by the ladies of the Marion relief association—whose object is to look after the wants of the poor in this city—asking each school child to bring a potato to the school building at which the scholar attended school, twenty-one bushels were reported, as follows: Central school building, ten bushels; North school building, three bushels; South school building, three bushels, and East building, five bushels—all of the very best quality and large.

Caught Up on an Old Trick.

LIMA, O., Dec. 15.—W. W. Clark, of New York, claimed to be representing Jenness Miller Garment company. He called on a number of dealers in ladies underwear soliciting orders. With each order given, the merchant was required to purchase a special show case in which to display the goods. The show case must be paid for in advance. Clark obtained many orders and quite a large amount of money. The Miller company has sent word that Clark is a fraud.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1890

Of the $3,500,000 appropriated by the Republican House of Representatives last week for public buildings, the South comes in for $75,000!

The Enquirer sarcastically remarks that "American tin-plate factories have been lost in a vain search for the non-existing American tin. It was a fine job." And truth, it was. Before the election one heard a good deal of talk about such factories, but it has all been dropped since the returns came in. It was a fine campaign scheme.

This seems to be an "off" year for the G. O. P. all round. At Hopkinsville, last week the city election resulted in a Democratic victory. Five Democrats and two Republicans were elected to the Council. Gilmer Bell, Democrat, defeated James Breathitt, Republican, for City Attorney. Hopkinsville and Christian County used to be a Republican stronghold.

EDITOR W. H. POLK, of the Middleborough Democrat, is reported to have fallen heir to over $16,000,000. He is a descendant of Robert Morris, of Revolutionary fame. Polk promises to take the Press Association on a big jamboree just as soon as he gets his millions. His many warm friends hope that his reported good fortune will not turn out to be a "fake."

SENATOR FRYE, who hails from the State of Maine, was heard from on the Force bill last Friday. He said:

"If it was necessary to put a bayonet behind every ballot, he would be in favor of putting a bayonet behind every ballot."

His remarks were greeted with hisses from the people in the gallery, and the people of the country will hiss the declaration of such a sentiment. The masses are opposed to this thing of casting their ballots at the point of the bayonet.

THE Australian ballot system was given a trial at Bowling Green a few days ago and here is what the Times of that city says of it: "The expressions on all sides are favorable to the new law. An election under this law is necessarily a quiet one. There is no indecent pulling and hauling about the polls. * * The new law makes it impossible and when a man votes for the first time under the system he can see and feel in a moment that it elevates and purifies the ballot box. * * Any sort of system that tends to put down the power of money and other corrupting influences in elections is a good one and our present secret ballot system does this."

AN Amelia correspondent of the Clermont Courier says: "The Clermont Packing Company, owned by Captain Benneville Kline, packed this season 336,900 cans of tomatoes, being 14,000 cases of two dozen each, all of which are disposed of, and nearly all shipped. Pay roll for wages about $4,000 for the season, which is short—from August 1st to November 1st. Paid farmers for tomatoes, $5,000."

Those who talked once of starting a canning establishment here can gather some information from the above. In such a rich agricultural and fruit-growing country as that which surrounds Maysville, a packing company could hardly fail to prove a paying enterprise. Now's a splendid time to talk it up.

Foster's Predictions.

Foster, the Missouri weather prophet, says his last storm wave was exactly on time, causing a heavy snow as far South as Arkansas. He then adds: "The next storm will be due to leave the Pacific coast about the 15th, (to-day) pass the east slope of the Rocky Mountains about the 16th, cross the great valley from 17th to 18th and reach the Atlantic coast about the 19th. Its center will probably pass through South Dakota, Illinois, Pennsylvania and strike the Atlantic about New York City. The storm will continually increase in force from the time it leaves the Pacific coast till it is well out on the Atlantic and a gale may be expected on the lakes and on the Atlantic from New York City northeast to Labrador. The center of the storm is the mildest part of it and therefore I expect heavy gale south of a line drawn from Lead City, South Dakota to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and heavy snows north of that line, and a cold wave throughout the northern line of States. This storm wave will inaugurate the 52 days rain period and we may expect heavy rains for about two weeks thereafter. These rains will not occur over all the country. The principal rainfalls have been near the sea-level for some time past and they will now work slowly north or inland to higher elevations and the coming rain period will cause less rainfall near the coast of the Gulf States and increase in the interior States or more elevated sections."

Goodwin, the Comedian.

The coming engagement of Nat Goodwin and his company should enlist the warmest favor of all patrons of a high grade of arguments. This organization will be found especially interesting for its general excellence. Mr. Goodwin, who is universally regarded as the most brilliant exponent of comedy, is also known as one of the best of stage managers and has thoroughly disciplined and trained his company into giving an ideal performance. Not a detail is left uncared for and the critics of the country have been paying him the highest tributes. There is a large demand for seats, and this engagement Wednesday night is looked upon as one of the events of the season by theater-goers.

River News.

The Keystone State had 750 barrels of lasses on her last trip up.

The Stanley, Congo and Shirley are all due down at 4 o'clock this evening and the Telegraph late to-night. Dup up to-night: Bostona for Pomeroy and Scotia for Pittsburg.

The big J. B. Williams left Pittsburg the other day with the largest tow of coal that has been taken out this season. She had 33 boats in line, each one carrying 30,000 bushels of coal, making a total of 990,000 bushels; nearly 40,000 tons. This would load 2,000 freight cars of 20 tons each, and make 100 trains of 20 cars each. Estimating the cars to be 25 feet long, the entire length of the trains would be over six miles.—Exchange.

SCHOOL NOTES.

NORTH FORK, DISTRICT NO. 18.

Passing by a handsome brick church and a churchyard "Where heaves the turf in many a mouldering heap," you ascend a steep hill, upon the top of which stands a neatly built school house, and this with ample ground surrounding is the private property of Mr. W. T. Berry, which he generously donates for the use of a public school.

The trustees are W. T. Dodson, Wm. Gabby and R. J. Gaither. The teacher is Professor W. T. Berry and a model teacher, being possessed of long experience. He has a large school and a superior class of scholars, their number being 46. We heard a class in advanced geography, illustrating the lesson by maps, a very interesting exercise. Mr. Berry makes a point of having his scholars explain their recitations. He uses many original and very instructive methods, calculated to interest and to advance the scholars in their studies. In many instances, he uses analytical methods, altogether original. He had the entire school to display their writing exercises in copy books, in which great care and proficiency was manifested and many showed ground work for writing a fine hand. I did not discover a single blot in a copy book, which is to be highly commended as an evidence of care and neatness. Slate exercises by the entire school were very good, indeed. Such system and good order I have rarely seen in any school room. The scholars move with the precision of trained soldiers and without occasioning the slightest confusion, and their minds are trained as systematically as their bodily movements. We spent the whole afternoon and we afterward were apprehensive lest the children thought I was going to keep up the entertainment until bed time. I felt reluctant to leave this very interesting school, and was only compelled to do so upon observing that the shades of evening were closing around us, but with a feeling of great encouragement.

PERRY SCHOOL, DISTRICT NO. 51.

The trustees of this school are Thomas Murthy, John Mitchell and Thomas Hamm.

There is here a good school house. It has been repaired recently and will receive further repairs. The trustees seem to be awake to the interests of their school. Miss Willa Burgoyne is the teacher. She has 32 scholars. It is a good, orderly school and Miss Burgoyne understands how to manage the children. She had several classes read for us, with other exercises. School is doing well.

THE BOYCOTT.

Colonel Casey, of the Covington Commonwealth, Wants $10,000 Damages.

The Cincinnati Typographical Union No. 3 has been boycotting the Covington Commonwealth for some time, and now finds itself defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages.

The suit was filed last Thursday in the United States Circuit Court at Cincinnati by Lewis E. Casey, proprietor of the paper, against the Union and sixteen other defendants, officers and managing agents of the Union.

The Commercial Gazette says the bill alleges that plaintiff is the proprietor of said newspaper, published in daily and weekly editions, and which has a large job printing trade, and is a valuable advertising medium; that the Union demanded that plaintiff should "unionize" his office and run it according to the rules and customs of the organization; that plaintiff refused, and thereupon a "boycott" was instituted against plaintiff and his paper. It alleges that defendants posted bills and distributed circulars calling on people to cease patronizing plaintiff and his paper or else incur the ill-will of organized labor; that circulars were sent to and interviews had with advertising patrons of the paper calling on them to cease advertising in the Commonwealth or else to incur the ill-will and lose the custom and trade of all organized labor and trades unions and all persons in sympathy with them; that the defendants in their bulletin also called on all laborers to "boycott" the plaintiff's paper; that plaintiff has lost large and valuable advertisements by reason thereof, and also lost much job work.

The bill prayed for an injunction against the boycott and the conspiracy and combination so alleged, and also $10,000 damages; affidavits were filed and exhibits made of the posters, hand bills, circulars, letters and bulletins, and Judge Jackson, in chambers, granted a restraining order, as prayed for in the bill, until the hearing of the motion for an injunction on December 20.

Colonel Casey has quite a number of friends in this city and county, who will watch the progress of the suit with much interest.

VERY APPROPRIATE.

The Kentucky Home Cook Book—New and Revised Edition.

This book has become so popular that no introduction to the public is needed.

It is a book of receipts contributed, after tests proving their excellence, by Kentucky ladies, which is a guarantee of its merit.

The receipts have been compiled under the auspices of the Mite Society of the M. E. Church, South, Maysville.

It has become very popular and is having a large sale.

It is a very appropriate and suitable thing for a Christmas present to a lady. Price, $1.50.

It may be found at:

Kackley & McDougle's, Second street; J. C. Pecor's drug store, Second street; Miss Lou Powling's millinery store, Second street.

Orders will receive prompt attention if addressed to Miss ALLIE BASCOM, Secretary, Maysville, Ky.

The Railways.

The Enquirer announced Saturday that the Louisville and Nashville will take possession of the K. C. on the 1st of January next.

A Queen and Crescent official thinks the L. & N. and K. C. will be operated separately, and that the old employees of the latter road will retain their places.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the first week of December show an increase of $23,000.00 over those for the corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1890	$152,000 00
1889	127,000 00
Increase	$23,000 00

President Ingalls says that the agreement with the Richmond and Danville and Virginia Midland roads for an entrance to Washington for the C. and O. would become effective April 1st next. This gives the C. and O. an independent line into Washington. The trains formerly left the main line at Charlottesville, running into Washington over the Virginia Midland; but under the new arrangement the main stem is left at Gordonsville.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. James Wood, druggist.

FIRST ONLY!

FIRST IN LOW PRICES.

FIRST IN QUALITIES.

FIRST IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

We are the first in low prices because we have the advantage of getting quantity discounts, in addition to cash discounts, and give our customers the benefit of these.

We are first in qualities because we have the whole field of manufacturers to select from; we cull from the very best of these, and the world cannot surpass them. This makes us first hands to the people—we are no "middle man"—our customers get from us the benefits of the profits of the "middle man." We do not buy of jobbers. We know no middle condition. The "middle man" is a relic of the moss-covered past.

We are first in the interests of the people because our system, from which we never vary, of necessity works to their interest. Our unalterable rule is cash and one price. We treat all alike in respect to prices. We charge Mr. Smith, who has no Bank account, just the same for a pair of shoes that we charge Mr. Jones, the coupon clipper, for a similar pair. We do not burden the people with debts. We have no credit customers of the "good" class to saddle with a percentage for delinquencies, making them carry our bad debts.

We have no shelf-worn goods, no "crabs" or "trash."

Our goods are new; we do not permit them to get old—our prices force them to go.

The cheapest, the newest, the best.

Come and see us; we will save you money.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Dennis Crow in Custody on a Serious Charge.

Dennis Crow was arrested this morning by Deputy Marshal Stockdale and landed in jail on a serious charge.

He is accused of robbing Robert Breeze last night about 12 o'clock.
Breeze's story is that Crow knocked him insensible with a poker. When he recovered his pocket was turned inside out, and his money and Crow had disappeared. The offense was committed on the C. & O. track in Chester. Breeze says the amount taken was small—less than $2. As soon as he recovered he hunted up the officer and entered complaint.

Crow was taken before Squire Miller and his examining trial set for Tuesday at 10 a. m. In default of bail he was committed to jail.

A man named Collins afterwards complained to Mr. Stockdale that he was held up last night at 8 o'clock by two men in Duke's alley and robbed of $5. Collins was taken to the jail and positively identified Crow as one of the fellows who held him up.

In the Highland County (Ohio) reports of last week appears the following:
"Grace G. Sloane, divorcee. Decree of divorce upon application. Plaintiff restored to name of Grace C. Gardner." The fair plaintiff spent several weeks in this city last summer and made many warm friends.

MESSRS. M. R. GILMORE, John T. Short, and Thomas Cummins accompanied the remains of Mr. T. J. Curley to Cincinnati Saturday afternoon, as pall-bearers. The other pall-bearers, Messrs. John Kane, Dan Daley and Martin A. O'Hare, went down this morning. The funeral took place at St. Edward's Church at 9 o'clock.

JOHN WOOD, aged about twenty years,
died last night at the home of his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, near Fern Leaf. The deceased was stricken down by an attack of diphtheria while attending school at Lebanon, O. He came home last Wednesday, and continued to grow worse, the attack finally resulting fatally.
The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock at the Germantown
Christian Church.

DR. ISHMAEL and family were passengers on the North German Loyd steamer Trave, that arrived at New York yesterday. Their visit abroad since last June was replete with interest and enjoyment. During their stay at Berlin, Germany, since July, the Doctor availed himself of the advantages which the thorough modern research of Europe has added to surgery and the profession. The party will remain at New York until the latter part of the week.

FRENCH TIPTON, of the Richmond Cl-max, sends the following story to the
"Whack" column of the Bourbon News:
"A rich but stingy boy came to Richmond and entered college. After some time and frequent suggestions, his professor told him that he must not appear in the class again without a pencil. So the boy reluctantly went to a store, bought a red cedar pencil, laid down the money and sighed as he said to himself: 'Been here only three months, and whack goes a nickel.'"

THE Journal of Bessemer, Ala., says:
"Mr. E. L. Mitchell, the popular cashier of the Louisville and Nashville Railway in this city, left on Friday for Yarnelltown, Ky., where, on the 16th inst., he will wed Miss Pearl Maury. Miss Maury is a lady of beauty and culture and made many friends while visiting here a couple of years ago. Mr. Mitchell is to be congratulated on his success in winning the affections of so charming a lady. Mr.
and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home in Bessemer about the 20th."
The groom-to-be is a son of Dr. John Mitchell, of this city.

The Goldsmith, Lehmanns and a few other wealthy firms who buy cattle for export trade, have leased the cattle shipping privileges of all the steamers plying between this country and England for the next five years, paying cash in advance. This gives them a corner on export cattle and places the farmer at their mercy.—Exchange.

During the first eleven months of this year there were received at the Union
Stock Yards, Chicago, 3,206,596 cattle, 166,397 calves, 6,843,677 hogs, 1,935,823 sheep, and 96,941 horses—a grand total of 12,198,364 animals. For the corresponding period last year the totals were 2-773,615 cattle, 116,794 calves, 5,306,395 hogs, 1,674,506 sheep, 75,671 horses; or 9,946,881 animals.

A Big Fire.

A warehouse belonging to A. M.
Bramel, near Orangeburg, was destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock this morning, together with the contents, about 60,000 pounds of tobacco. The building was insured in the Home Mutual of this county, and the tobacco was insured with Duley & Baldwin for $4,500, in the A. E. na, North America and Commercial Union—$1,500 in each.

MINER'S MAXIMS

A GOOD article will wear itself into favor.

MINER'S experience has proved the truth of this maxim.

MINER'S customers also echo the
truth of this maxim.

MINER'S Shoes have worn themselves into the favor of the public, and thus established his reputation for selling only GOOD SHOES.

What patience is to action, wear is to worth; and years ago Miner laid the foundation of worth by selling Shoes which would wear satisfactorily and stand the test of time and use.

Varnish covers many a knot-hole and blackening often conceals hidden defects in Shoes, which is only discovered when use has shown their inferiority.

There are one hundred cents in a dollar, and these, as well as common sense, demand that you buy Shoes which will render their full cost in wearing value.

FIGHTING PARNELL.

The Church Takes Up the Great Question.

INFLUENCE OF THE PRIESTS.

It is Exerted Everywhere Against Parnell. A Meeting at Tipperary Comes Near Ending in a Riot—Davitt's Opinion of Parnell's Followers—Other Foreign Happenings.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The wave of reaction against Mr. Parnell is becoming more pronounced. The influence of the priests is rapidly making itself felt. In the churches everywhere, but especially in Kilkenny, yesterday, the clergy urged openly upon their hearers the duty of following the advice of the bishops, and striking a blow at immorality in high places by voting against Parnell. The bishop of Cloyne has requested the members of the league in his diocese to withdraw from the present organization, controlled by Mr. Parnell and to form a reorganized league, free from alliance with the discredited leader.

The east and south down branches of the league have stopped remitting to the league treasury at Dublin until the right to dispose of the general fund is made more clear. The scenes at the Tipperary meeting yesterday are regarded as a prelude to a campaign of violence that may reach a degree little short of civil war before the question at issue is finally decided by the Irish people. A gang of forty roughs captured the meeting temporarily, and carried everything for Parnell. But the contingents of country people from a radius of twenty miles around came in, and the situation was speedily changed. After a lively series of scurrilous anti-Parnellian got control of the meeting, and the most violent of the partisans of Parnell were expelled. The latter had come to the spot armed with heavy black thorns, and there is no doubt that they had premeditated violence. Such events go far to sustain Davitt's assertion that Parnell's following is made up of the riff-raff of the cities, or, as he puts it, the "residuum."

Shutting Down on Pensions.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Nell Gwynne is being as cruelly treated by scandalous tongues as in those days when she was the favored mistress of Charles II. Charles Brailaugh and other radicals who have no respect for royal lineage, and even some Conservatives, like Louis Jennings, formerly a New York editor, and now a member of parliament, are going out, demanding that pensions be withdrawn from the noblemen whose only merit is descent from a harlot.

The chief bone of contention is the pension paid to the Duke of St. Albans as master of the Hawks. The duke is descended from one of Nell Gwynne's royal infants, the particular one that Nell held out of a window as Charles II passed, and told him that if he did not make him a duke she would drop him; that is, the infant, not the king. He was made a duke and endowed with a pension of £2,000 a year as royal falconer; and that pension has been paying for over 200 years.

"Charles II," exclaimed Mr. Jennings, "never imagined in his wildest dreams that the British people in 1890 would still be paying a pension of £2,000 a year to the descendant of Nell Gwynne." It seems that there are no hawks, no falcons and no pigeons to take care of, but yet the payment goes on, and the government proposes to commute the pension for twenty-seven years' purchase. This, while survivors of the Light Brigade are dependent on public charity for support.

Royal Memorial Service.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Queen Victoria and other members of the royal family, attended yesterday a memorial service at Frogmore Mausoleum, where the remains of Prince Albert are buried, and it being the twenty-ninth anniversary of the death of the Prince Consort, her majesty, according to her custom on this anniversary, was attired in deep mourning.

German Socialists Indignant.

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—The German Socialists are indignant that Count Hatzfeldt should have appointed Paul Lindau to edit the dairy of Ferdinand Lassalle. Lindau is not in sympathy with Lassalle's views, and it is feared that the writings, which are naturally of great interest to Socialists, will appear in mutilated form.

Striking for Shorter Hours.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Scotch railway men have decided to go on a strike next Sunday for shorter hours. The prospect is that the railways will be tied up at the very time when such an event will be most exasperating to the public, as the Christmas week travel will be interfered with.

Religious Crisis Ended.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 15.—The Armenian patriarch officiated at Stamboul yesterday for the first time since the recent rupture with the sultan. It is believed, therefore, that the religious crisis is ended.

Italian Troops Marching on Kassala. CAIRO, Dec. 15.—It is reported at Suakin that the Italian troops are marching upon Kassala, with the intention of occupying that place.

CHOLERA IN GUATEMALA.

More Than Twelve Thousand Cases and Over a Thousand Deaths.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—The steamer San Juan, which has just arrived from Panama, brings news of ravages of cholera in Guatemala. More than 1,200 deaths occurred in the city of Guatemala in seven weeks. The steamer passed without touching in order to avoid quarantine here.

An ice famine is reported from the isthmus. A company recently started an ice factory at Colon, but the machinery broke down, and now in the middle of the heated term ice commands $70 per ton.

DESTRUCTION BY FIRE.

A Dwelling House and Many Rare Paintings Burned—Other Losses.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Dec. 15.—The house of Judge J. R. Putnam, of the supreme court, was burned last night. It was filled with fine paintings, rare curiosities and other fruits of many years of travel.

The money loss of $50,000 in no way represents the actual loss, for most of the valuable things cannot be replaced. The house was valued at $25,000 and was a remodelled farm house, built originally by Judge Putnam's grandfather. It was insured for $26,000.

Girls Jump for Their Lives.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—Fire in the building at the northeast corner of Eighth and Marion streets at an early hour this morning, caused Lizzie and Kate Koch and Heinrich Schultz to jump from a third story window to the ground. Though the girls were not badly hurt, Schultz was so severely injured that he died. The damage done by the fire was slight.

Furniture Factory Burned.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 15.—The furniture factory of Louis Hax was totally destroyed by fire last night. It was the largest establishment of the kind in Missouri. The loss is estimated at $125,000 and the insurance is reported to be only $25,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Five Story Building Burned.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Fire this morning in the five story building, 368 Canal street, did $10,000 damage before it was extinguished. Hartman & Mendelsohn, cloaks; David M. Gerber, dry goods and J. H. Eckhardt, are the principal losers. The losses are fully covered by insurance.

Eight Business Houses Burned.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 15.—The fire which destroyed eight business houses at Minden, Neb., Saturday night spent its force when it reached the Jansen hotel, a solid brick structure. The total loss is estimated at $35,000; insurance, $13,000.

Burned in Their Own Home.

SAGINAW, Mich., Dec. 15.—Two children, sons of Mr. Louis Holmgren, residing two miles east of this city, were burned to death Saturday in their home, which too fire during the absence of Mrs. Holmgren.

Four Children Burned to Death.

GREENVILLE, Miss., Dec. 15.—Four children of Eli Thornton, colored, were burned in their cabin near Refuge Log, yesterday during the absence of Mrs. Thornton.

A DEAD MAN'S BODY

The Cause of a Peculiar Lawsuit at St. Clairsville, Ohio.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Dec. 15.—An interesting yet strange lawsuit set for a hearing at St. Clairsville, Thursday, was continued until February, owing to the illness of the defendant. Mr. David Park died several years ago and his body was buried in Walnut Grove cemetery. Mrs. Park was married to James K. Watson, a prominent New York attorney.

Hearing that a street was to be opened up through the cemetery, Mrs. Watson made preparations to remove the body of her first husband to Riverside cemetery. David Park, father of the deceased, objected, saying that his son had always expressed a desire to be buried beside his brother, who was killed in the army. Mrs. Watson insisted on the removal, and had the body disinterred and taken to Riverside cemetery. Mr. Park then brought suit for the recovery of the body. Able lawyers are employed on both sides, and much interest is manifested in the case.

A Bookkeeper Goes Wrong and Succeeds.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 15.—One of the firm of P. A. Gross & company, wholesale milliners, while dining at a restaurant Friday night last was surprised to see their bookkeeper, Emil Wulff, drinking champagne at one of the tables. As Wulff's salary did not warrant such luxuries an investigation of his accounts was begun Saturday morning, and soon after a shortage of $50 was discovered. Wulff said he could easily explain the discrepancy and went out to hunt up one of the customers, but never returned. Further investigation revealed a shortage of $3,000. Nothing more was heard of Wulff until 6 o'clock Sunday morning when he was found dead in the out-house at his boarding house with a bullet in his right temple and the revolver clinched in his hand.

Aged Couple Beaten by a Robber.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Dec. 15.—Asa Warnock, 90 years old and blind, with his wife of equal age, living at Honey Creek, ten miles northwest of here; has been in the habit of keeping large sums of money in the house, but two days ago deposited his cash in bank. At 10 o'clock that night he was awakened by a man in the house, and asked what he wanted. The man assaulted both the old people with a club, beating them into insensibility, and left after getting only two dollars. The old people were found by neighbors this morning, and are in a very critical condition, with the prospect of recovery small owing to their old age. A large posse is in pursuit of the outlaw, who will be severely dealt with if caught.

Crime Stopped by Mystery.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—Henry Hartman, a saloon keeper, while standing on a rear porch of his house at 3 o'clock this morning, was shot and instantly killed. The crime is enshrouded in mystery. A few hours after the tragedy the police arrested Hartman's two sons, Joseph and Henry, Jr. Later John Brenner was arrested, and a revolver found in his possession. Hartman has been living very unhappily with his family, and his sudden taking off is ascribed to this domestic trouble.

Editorial Writer Seriously Ill.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 15.—The Hon. John M. Fleming, a well known editorial writer in Tennessee, with whom Congressman Phelan had the celebrated controversy which ended by him sending the editor a challenge to fight a duel, is lying very ill at his hotel in this city with poor chances of recovery.

Honeymoon Ended by Death.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—Capt. Gideon W. Rhodes, of the schooner John W. Biglow, died here yesterday. He was a native of Rockland, Me. Two weeks ago he came here and was married to Miss Ellen Symington. A severe cold developed into pneumonia and caused his death.

Died in a Pen.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Catherine Quaid, 69 years of age, died Sunday in a pen, while attending services in the church of St. Thomas Aquinas, in Brooklyn. Mrs. Quaid was the mother-in-law of Thomas F. Nevins, chief engineer of the Brooklyn fire department.

Insurance Agent Disappears.

BRAMPTON, Ont., Dec. 15.—W. D. Hunter, insurance agent, has disappeared. His cash is short $3,000.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
